COURSE DELIVERY MODE

This is a fully online course accessible only through FAU's learning management system, Canvas. You must log into Canvas with your FAU ID and Password to access the materials and assignments in this course. If you do not know your FAU ID or Password, contact OIT for help.

The course is organized into modules with due dates. Unless otherwise specified, each module begins on Monday at 12:00am, EST, and ends the next week on Tuesday at 11:59pm, EST. The course begins with the "Start Here Module", which will help you familiarize with the organization and navigation of the course. You will open a new learning module each week of the semester, up to week 15, to access the assigned reading materials, videos, presentations, and other relevant materials. Tests will also take place online.

TIME COMMITMENT PER CREDIT HOUR

This course has 3 credit hours. For traditionally delivered courses, not less than one (1) hour of classroom or direct faculty instruction each week for fifteen (15) weeks per Fall or Spring semester, and a minimum of two (2) hours of out-of-class student work for each credit hour. Equivalent time and effort are required for Summer Semesters, which usually have a shortened timeframe. Fully Online courses, hybrid, shortened, intensive format courses, and other non-traditional modes of delivery will demonstrate equivalent time and effort.

REQUIRED TEXTS & MATERIALS

In this course, you will need the following texts and/or materials, including the following seminal (older than 5 years old) works:

COURSE ASSESSMENTS, ASSIGNMENTS & GRADING POLICY

GRADING CRITERIA

General Note: You are expected to complete assignments on time. They will be typed, uploaded to Canvas, and they should follow the MLA format (Times New Roman 12point, double-spaced). For additional guidance on MLA format visit the University Center for Excellence in Writing on campus or online <http://www.fau.edu/UCFW/> or Purdue University Writing Lab https://owl.purdue.edu/owl/purdue_owl.html

- Introductions and Syllabus Quiz (Required - Not included on Final Grade)

You will post a brief video introducing yourself in the Student Introductions Discussion Board so that everybody can meet. Dr. Gamboa will draw from that information to create balanced student groups. You will also take a syllabus quiz to understand the expectations for this course. You can take the syllabus quiz as many times as necessary to achieve 100%.

- Translation Practice / Prácticas de traducción [40% of total grade - 18 Practices (2.22 % each)]

The largest part of your Assignments in this course include practice translating into both English and Spanish. Some will be done individually and some in group but, in any case, I encourage group consultation even though the final product should be yours. Regardless of your language ability in either language at the beginning of the course, practice and consultation will help everybody improve.

- Participation / Participación [15% of total grade - 12 Discussions (1.25 % each)]

As part of the course assignments, you will be asked to post an original submission to the discussion board and reply to at least two other students' posts with a substantive response. A substantive response adds value to the discussion by bringing new ideas, research, evidence, etc. to the conversation. "I agree," "Ditto" and the like are not acceptable replies. The rules of Netiquette must be followed. Replies are not texts with your friends. Full sentences, proper spelling, source citations, etc., are expected. Keep in mind that Discussion Boards take the place of class participation in the physical classroom.

Ensure that postings contain detailed responses to each question and that course and chapter contents are applied in your discussion responses. For example, consider taking a new approach in presenting chapter content, cite new examples, present external research (paraphrase, avoid unnecessary and/or lengthy quotations; do not plagiarize, cite references). For maximum points, please reference external research or examples as well as the discussion rubrics.

Important: As a new module begins every Monday at 12:00am, EST, and ends the next week on Tuesday at 11:59pm, all original posts for each module discussion board must be submitted by 11:59pm, EST, every Sunday to allow time for your peers to respond. Responses to peers are due at 11:59pm, EST, on the following Tuesday.

- Translation and Culture / Traducción y cultura [8% of total grade - 4 Assignments (2 % each)]

Translation is more than the transference from one language to another. Since it is intricately connected to culture, the tasks in this section encourage you to reflect about language from a socio cultural perspective.

- Self-evaluations – Auto evaluaciones [4% of total grade - 4 Self-evaluations (1 % each)]

The 4 self-evaluations will provide you with a different means of assessing your knowledge of the material and also prepare you for the midterm exam.

- Midterm Exam / Examen parcial (5% of total grade)

The Midterm Exam will be based on readings, lectures, practices and topics covered in the Discussion Board. The exam will include multiple choice, true/false and/or short essay questions. Answers will be evaluated based on content in terms of accuracy of information and ability to analyze the issues. Good answers will demonstrate that you have read and understood the chapters, and actively participated in discussions. The Midterm Exam will be taken online in the Canvas Learning Management System. Test will be timed. No make-up exams are given. Keep in mind that the Midterm exam, is where you will demonstrate your understanding of theoretical, linguistic and cultural notions.

- Journal/Diario [20% of total grade - 11 weekly posts (1.81 % each)]

Throughout the semester you will write an individual reflection on 11 of the module topics which may start with a question, an item that surprised you, or a discovery. In this manner, you will continue to develop your analytical skills as you acquire a deeper understanding of language and of translation.

- Glossary / Glosario [8% of total grade - 14 weekly posts (0.57 % each)]

Glossaries are an essential part of translation. They are specialized vocabulary lists relating to a particular topic. Compiling them contributes to developing attention skills, learning vocabulary, and advancing faster through a translation. This semester you will compile one on “translation and linguistics” which will help sediment what you learn in the course.

- Extra points (Up to 2 points added to final grade)

Throughout the semester you should be on the lookout for translations (or rather mistranslations) that you encounter in your everyday life. Making a post including a picture and your commentary will earn you 1 point. Up to 2 points may be added to your final grade.

The instructor will calculate your grade based on the following weighted distribution:

Assessment	Weight (%)
Introduction and Syllabus Quiz	0%
Translation Practice / Prácticas de traducción 18 Practices (2.22 % each)	40%
Participation / Participación 12 Discussions (1.25 % each)	15%
Translation and Culture / Traducción y cultura 4 Assignments (2 % each)	8%
Self-evaluations - Autoevaluaciones 4 Self-evaluations (1 % each)	4%
Midterm Exam / Examen parcial	5%
Journal/Diario 11 posts (1.81 % each)	20%
Glossary / Glosario 14 weekly posts (0.57 % each)	8%
TOTAL:	100%

LATE ASSIGNMENTS POLICY

Late homework will be accepted up to a week later but with a penalty of a 5 point reduction unless a verifiable medical excuse and/or other suitable documents are provided in a timely manner. If you know in advance of any such reason, please let me know. Reasonable accommodation will also be made for students participating in a religious observance.

MAKE-UP POLICY FOR TESTS

As a general rule, there will be no make up for tests with the exception of a documented emergency. Please make sure you contact your professor within the same week of the event. Please note that the University Provost, in order to identify and assist students at academic risk, requests that courses with freshmen have graded assignments well before midterm. Also note the minimum grade required to pass the course and have it count for the major/minor is a “C”.

INCOMPLETE GRADE POLICY

The University policy states that a student who is passing a course but has not completed all work due to exceptional circumstances, may, with consent of the instructor, temporarily receive a grade of incomplete (“I”). The assignment of the “I” grade is at the discretion of the instructor but is allowed only if the student is passing the course.

COURSE POLICIES

CODE OF ACADEMIC INTEGRITY POLICY STATEMENT

Students at Florida Atlantic University should endeavor to maintain the highest ethical standards. Academic dishonesty is a serious breach of these ethical standards because it interferes with the University mission to provide a high-quality education in which no student enjoys an unfair advantage over any other. Academic dishonesty is also destructive to the university community, which is grounded in a system of mutual trust and places high value on personal integrity and individual responsibility. Harsh penalties are associated with academic dishonesty. For more information, see University Regulation 4.001.

PLAGIARISM

Plagiarism is unacceptable in the University community. Academic work must be an original work of your own thought, research, or self-expression. When students borrow ideas, wording, or organization from another source, they must acknowledge that fact in an appropriate manner. Plagiarism is the deliberate use and appropriation of another's work without identifying the source and trying to pass off such work as one's own. Any student who fails to give full credit for ideas or materials taken from another has plagiarized. This includes all discussion board posts, journal entries, wikis, and other written and oral presentation assignments. If in doubt, cite your source.

ONLINE ATTENDANCE POLICY

Since the course is online, you should access the course at least three times per week to ensure you do not miss pertinent postings, messages, or announcements. It is imperative that you meet course deadlines and stay active in discussion boards, group projects, etc. If you are experiencing major illness, absences due to University duties, or other large-scale issues, contact the instructor immediately to formulate a resolution.

NETIQUETTE

Due to the casual communication common in the online environment, students are sometimes tempted to relax their grammar, spelling, and/or professionalism. Please remember that you are adult students and professionals—your communication should be appropriate. For more in-depth information, please see the FAU statement on netiquette.

CLASSROOM ETIQUETTE/DISRUPTIVE BEHAVIOR POLICY STATEMENT

Disruptive behavior is defined in the FAU Student Code of Conduct as "... activities which interfere with the educational mission within classroom." Students who disrupt the educational experiences of other students and/or the instructor's course objectives in a face-to-face or online course are subject to disciplinary action. Such behavior impedes students' ability to learn or an instructor's ability to teach. Disruptive behavior may include, but is not limited to non-approved use of electronic devices (including cellular telephones); cursing or shouting at others in such a way as to be disruptive; or, other violations of an instructor's expectations for classroom conduct.
