Subject: RE: New LLCL Course, AI and Languages

Hi Michael, we have course called introduction to AI.
To avoid potential confusion, I suggest changing your title to reflect the contents of the course.

Something like: INTRODUCTION TO AI FOR LANGUAGE EDUCATION.

Thanks!

Subject: New LLCL Course, AI and Languages

Dear Hari,

LLCL is proposing a new linguistics course, LIN 4609 Introduction to AI and Languages: History, Ethics, and Applications. Our college UPC committee approved it today, but in anticipation of any questions from the Engineering and CS rep UUPC, I was asked to let you know about the proposal. The proposal form and syllabus are attached. Please let me know if you or your faculty have any questions.

Thank you.
