Hi Joe...

I forwarded the course proposal to our area coordinator in COMM STUDIES for review. We do not see an issue with the new course proposal.

Best,

Shane

Subject: New Business Communications Course Review

Hi Shane:

Thank you again for your help with the AI course.

As part of the certificate and minor program in Global Business Communication Applications-(Language Specified ex. Italian, French, German, etc), Business Communications has developed an undergraduate course in Business Communications Across Cultures. I am attaching the model syllabus for your review and concurrence. I requested a new course number from Maria Jennings, also.

Our Undergraduate Council meets mid-January, so if you are able to get back to me with the concurrence by January 10th, I will attach this information to the new course form. I did search the course catalogue prior to designing the course, but didn't find anything significant specifically related to business communications.

Thanks for your assistance, over and over, Shane!

Joe
