Classical Studies

Undergraduate Certificate

(Minimum of ~~18~~ 15 credits required)

The certificate in Classical Studies, available to undergraduate students, is a multidisciplinary program in the ancient Greek and Roman foundations of Western culture. Program offerings include courses in history, philosophy, literature, languages, social and political theory, the arts, archaeology and rhetoric. In addition to courses that pertain directly to Greco-Roman antiquity, the curriculum includes select courses that treat the reception and influence of classical culture in later historical contexts, including contemporary popular culture. The program will be especially valuable to students pursuing careers in law, medicine, the ministry, education or public service.

The Classical Studies Program welcomes students from any of FAU's colleges and those who have earned degrees elsewhere. ~~Along with the certificate curriculum, the program also sponsors lectures by visiting scholars and other special events.~~

~~Complete one of the options below to earn the certificate:~~

~~Option 1 (six courses): Six lecture courses, at least three of which must be from the core list.~~

~~Option 2 (six courses): Two semesters of either Classical Greek or Latin and four lecture courses, at least two of which must be from the core list.~~
