We have no objections. It looks like a great course! I plan on developing a "life history" course when i return to my regular teaching schedule upon stepping out of the chair position, but i'm sure it would be very different.

Hi Ann,

We are proposing a new course (syllabus attached) and wanted to reach out and see if Sociology has any objection to the course topic. If you do not, if you could send a note indicating that, we would appreciate it!
