International Studies Minor

Student must take 15 credits (five courses) from the list below. Twelve of the 15 credits must be upper division. The five courses (15 credits) must be drawn from three or more different disciplines. Students are reminded that at least 75% of the credits required for the minor must be completed at FAU, and they must maintain a minimum FAU GPA of 2.0 in the coursework required for the minor.

Foreign Language Requirement and Foreign Studies

Students must take at least one language course beyond the minimum for graduation (for Spanish this would mean one course beyond SPN 1121). Students are strongly encouraged to take a literature or civilization course in a modern foreign language. For foreign languages not offered at the Honors College (Arabic, German, Russian, Chinese, Italian, etc.) students may fulfill this requirement in the College of Arts and Letters. FRE2220/2221 may also be taken online through the College of Arts and Letters.

Students are encouraged to participate in an Honors College study abroad program and count up to 7 of those credits toward the minor if the courses appear on the list below.
