Program Name Holocaust Studies Certificate Holocaust Studies Minor	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> New Program* <input type="checkbox"/> Change Program*	Effective Date (TERM & YEAR) Spring 2026
Please explain the requested change(s) and offer rationale below or on an attachment. We are proposing the creation of a Holocaust Studies Certificate to non-degree seeking students who wish to pursue academic study of the Holocaust. This certificate provides an in-depth, interdisciplinary understanding of the historical, cultural, and ethical dimensions of the Holocaust. This certificate will enhance students' academic experience by integrating courses across multiple disciplines, encouraging critical thinking, and preparing them for careers or further study in fields such as history, human rights, education, and public policy. We are also proposing the creation of a Minor in Holocaust Studies which is intended to serve degree seeking students who wish to complete a concentration in Holocaust Studies with a view to Graduate work in this area, or to enhance students' academic experience by integrating courses across multiple disciplines, encouraging critical thinking, and preparing them for careers or further study in fields such as history, human rights, education, and public policy. The rationale for this proposal is to meet growing student and educator interest, strengthen FAU's academic offerings in Holocaust and genocide studies, and provide formal recognition of students' focused work in this area.

Certificate in Holocaust Studies (12 Credits)

JST Minor in Holocaust Studies (12 Credits)

The Certificate/Minor in Holocaust Studies offers students an in-depth understanding of the historical, cultural, and ethical dimensions of the Holocaust. Through interdisciplinary coursework, students will explore the origins and implementation of the Nazi genocide, its representation in literature, film, and art, and its enduring impact on memory, law, and human rights. The program prepares students to critically examine issues of antisemitism, racism, genocide, and historical trauma while fostering skills in research, analysis, and ethical reflection. This certificate is ideal for students (or continuing students) pursuing careers in education, history, Jewish studies, museum and archival work, or fields related to social justice and human rights.

Students must complete a total of 12 credits. This includes 6 credits from Category 1 and either 6 credits from Category 2 or an additional 6 credits from Category 1.

Students may take up to 3 credits in either JST 4905 (Directed Independent Study) or JST 4940 (Practicum)*, but not both. (If these are offered as 1-credit courses students may repeat the course with the permission of the program director up to a maximum of 3 credits.)
