Peace, Justice and Human Rights
Undergraduate Minor
Undergraduate Certificate

(Minimum of 12 credits required)

The Peace, Justice and Human Rights (PJHR) minor and certificate are designed to provide an enriching educational experience for students interested in themes of peace, social justice and human rights. The minor and certificate have a tailored curriculum that allows students flexibility to design a program matching their personal interests and their academic and professional objectives. Graduates enter fields such as law, international relations, social and community work and education. The minor is available for degree-seeking students and the certificate is for non-degree-seeking students.

Requirements for the Certificate:

Students who are non-degree-seeking may complete the PJHR certificate, which has the same requirements and offers the same tailored curriculum as the minor as noted below.

Requirements for the Minor:

1. 12 credits of coursework in the area of the minor.
2. 9 of the 12 credits must be upper-level credits.
3. At least 75 percent of all required credits must be completed at FAU.
4. Students completing the minor must have a minimum overall FAU GPA of 2.0 within the coursework required.

Students are required to complete a total of 12 credits. Students are required to take PAX 3001 and any other three courses (9 credits) from the approved list of core courses and electives. Students may petition to allow up to one course that is not listed with director approval.

~~from the two categories of classes listed below.~~ No more than 6 credits may be taken from any one department.
