Hi Will,

Sorry for the slow response here. I did hear back from faculty and we do not have any objections.

Sounds like a great course!

Best,
Craig

Subject: New Sociology course

Dear Dr. Burnett,

The Department of Sociology is developing a new upper-level course related to American Family Policy. The course has been run several times under a “Special Topics” name, but now we’d like to add it to the curriculum so that we can continue to offer it regularly. As an upper-level course, we anticipate that most students taking this course will be Sociology majors.

I’m reaching out to you as Chair of Political Science. The proposed course syllabus is attached for your review. Would you please review at your earliest convenience to determine whether there is any conflict between the proposed course and your undergraduate program? Please let me know if you have any feedback or if the proposed course can proceed as-is.

Thank you,

Will
