RE: Recommendation of new WAC Committee member

Effective for Fall 2014, the Writing Across Curriculum committee would like to recommend Joy McClellan from the School of Social Work as a new member of the committee. She is intended as a replacement for Ellen Ryan, also from the School of Social Work, who is stepping down from the committee. Ms. McClellan was recommended to the committee by Prof. Ryan, teaches WAC courses regularly, and is invested in the goals of the WAC program. She has joined the committee for the past two meetings in Spring 2014 and has already offered valuable perspective as a visitor.
