Memorandum

To: UUPC
 From: Rebecca Lautar, Chair, Department of Music
 Re: FLEX proposal from Music
 Date: April 2, 2018

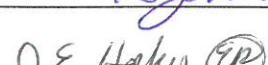

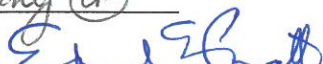

The Department of Music proposes a change to the Foreign Language Exit requirement (FLEX) for music degrees. The music program is Selective Access and each music major is fully accredited by the National Association of Schools of Music, which requires specific percentages of music coursework for each category of emphasis: degree-specific music courses, music performance courses and supporting courses in music. For many of the music degrees, requiring FLEX adds additional time to degree and in some cases adds extra credits that trigger the excess credit surcharge.

The department proposes that all Bachelor of Music (BM) majors be waived from FLEX.

The department's proposal is as follows:

Bachelor of Music, or Bachelor of Music Education

1. All degree requirements of the University, including excluding the University Foreign Language Requirement. (See Degree Requirements section of this catalog.)
