

To: Undergraduate Programs Committee
 From: Barclay Barrios, Associate Dean
 Re: Changes to Ethics, Law, and Society Certificate

We would like to propose changes to the certificate in Ethics, Law, and Society. These changes are intended to attract students from Criminology and Criminal Justice, as suggested to us by that department, and are also intended to update the courses offered by departments in the college. The changes are:

Required
Ethics	PHI 4661
Philosophy (two courses, one must be PHI 4661 one course; CCJ Majors may substitute CCJ 4054 Ethics and the Justice System)
Ethics (required)	PHI 4661
Philosophy of Law	PHM 3400
Social and Political Theory	PHM 3200
Biomedical Ethics	PHI 4633
Environmental Ethics	PHI 3640
Political Science (two courses)
Law and American Society	POS 3691
Constitutional Law: Government Powers and Limits	POS 4603
Constitutional Law: Civil Rights and Liberties	POS 4604
International Law: Foundations and Institutions	INR 3403
Women and the Law	POS 3693
Course in a third discipline (one course)
American Immigration	AMH 3530
History of Civil Rights	AMH 4575
Social Anthropology	ANT 4412
Other law courses	BUL, HFT

Criminal Law and the Constitution	CJL 4064
Issues in Criminal Law	CCJ 4931
Judicial Administration and the Criminal Courts	CJL 4510
News Media Ethics	COM 4621
Electrical Engineering Practice	EEL 3012
Honors Conservation Biology	EVS 4414
History of Human Rights	HIS 3204
Ethics in Nursing	NUR 4826
Administrative Process and Ethics	PAD 4604
Contemporary Social Theory	SYA 4120
Social Control and Deviance	SYP 3570
Gender and Society	SYD 4800
Class Status and Power	SYO 3530
Women of Color in U.S. Society	WST 4404
Women, Violence, Resistance	WST 3225