Undergraduate Certificate in Diversity and Global Studies

The Certificate in Diversity and Global Studies comprises 12 credits of coursework that support students' critical consciousness in their education about diversity within a global context. The certificate is available to degree seeking and non-degree students and will be conferred upon completion of required and elective courses. All courses must be taken at FAU.

Required courses:

EDF 2854 – The Educated Citizen in a Global Context (an IFP course)

EDF 4802 - Community Engagement for Global Consciousness (Capstone course)

Electives:

Six credits of electives pertaining to diversity and global studies selected in consultation with an academic advisor.
